

Principles of Kingdom Education

These 10 principles of Kingdom Education taken from the book, Kingdom Education (2002) will be foundational to all that takes place at Word of God Academy.

1. The education of children and youth is the primary responsibility of parents.
2. The education of children and youth is a 24-hour-a-day, seven-days-per-week process that continues from birth till maturity.
3. The education of children and youth must have as its primary goals the salvation of and discipleship of the next generation.
4. The education of children and youth must be based on God's Word as absolute truth.
5. The education of children and youth must hold Christ as preeminent in all of life.
6. The education of children and youth must not hinder the spiritual and moral development of the next generation.
7. The education of children and youth, if and when delegated to others by parents, must be done so with utmost care to ensure that all teachers follow these principles.
8. The education of children and youth results in the formation of a belief system or worldview that will be patterned after the belief systems of worldviews of the person's teachers.
9. The education of children and youth must lead to true wisdom by connecting all knowledge to a biblical worldview for frame of reference.
10. The education of children and youth must have a view of the future that includes the eternal perspective.
11. The education of children and youth must have as its primary focus an increase in knowledge of God.
12. The education of children and youth results in performing work in fulfillment of God's will for their lives.
13. The education of children and youth must be characterized by the pursuit of biblical excellence based on godly character, resulting in competent performance.
14. The education of children and youth must equip them to fulfill God's highest purpose for man: to glorify Him and enjoy Him in life and eternity.
